WAAPA STAFF

CANDIDATE STATEMENTS PAGE 1/1

Michael EASTMAN

I am very keen to continue in my current position as Staff representative on the WAAPA Board.

I believe I have the capacity to diligently represent the interests, success and concerns of all WAAPA staff and work with the Board towards meeting the challenges ahead for us all.

Aine WHELAN

Aine Whelan has an honours degree in music from Trinity College Dublin, an Arts Management Degree from WAAPA and an Executive MBA from UWA. She has produced dance, theatre, music, festival events and live events in Western Australia, Europe, India and China. She has also worked at a senior level in Government and the corporate sector managing strategic projects in the arts, community and corporate environments. She is currently Leader of Learning and Innovation at WAAPA, sits on the Academic Services Committee, is a member of several committees for ECF 2012 and more recently has taken on responsibilities for business and sponsorship development at WAAPA.

“If elected to the WAAPA Board Aine Whelan commits to acting on behalf of WAAPA staff to progress the sustainability, development and growth of WAAPA in the context of ECU and the wider community”.
