University Rules:
Academic Regalia Rules

1. These Rules may be cited as the Academic Regalia Rules and are made pursuant to Statute 26 – Conferral and Presentation of Awards of the University.

2. The official regalia of this University shall be as follows:
The academic gowns of the Chancellor, Pro-Chancellor and senior officers of the University, as referred to in c), d) and e), are all made in the Oxford University style. The gown is gathered on to a yoke at the back and flows loosely in the front. There are no ties. All the gowns are made of black light weight wool. Rank is identified by a variety of trimmings.

The Chancellor, Pro-Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor wear a hat in the mortarboard style. A Tudor bonnet is worn by other senior officers of the University.

The design and trim of all regalia will be appropriate to the person’s rank and is listed below.

(a) Chancellor: The Chancellor’s gown shall have a forty seven centimetre wide square collar at the back made of blue satin on which is embroidered the Edith Cowan University crest in gold metallic thread. The gown shall have a thirteen centimetre wide front facing comprising of a five and a half centimetre width of blue satin on inside edges, and a seven and a half centimetre embroidered braid on the outer edge of the facing. The braid shall be the kangaroo paw and boronia motif in gold metallic thread, edged both sides with the chancellery lace in gold metallic thread. This embroidered border edges the square collar and extends the full length of the gown at the front. The full length sleeves of the gown shall have a seven centimetre border of blue satin at the cuff.

The hat shall be a mortarboard style, made of black velvet with a gold beehive button and a gold tassel. The crown of the mortarboard shall have the same seven and a half centimetre wide embroidered braid with the kangaroo paw and boronia motif in gold metallic thread, as the gown.
