Welcome to this ECU Library Podcast on Getting to know your Faculty of Education and Arts Librarians

Your Faculty of Education and Arts librarians have developed expertise in the subject resources of the faculty, and we'd like to introduce you to our team

<Julia Gross
j.gross@ecu.edu.au
9370-6247>

I'm Julia Gross and I head up the Education and Arts team and am based at Mt Lawley. My special subject focus in the faculty is in literature and languages

<Ken Gasmier
k.gasmier@ecu.edu.au
9370-6243>

I'm Ken Gasmier and my role is Senior Librarian for the Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts and for the School of Communications and Arts. I'm the music, performing and creative arts subject expert and my home campus is Mt Lawley.

<Graham Connell
g.connell@ecu.edu.au
9370-6250>

We'd like to introduce Graham Connell. Graham is our Education librarian and he's also at Mt Lawley Campus. Graham has a great knowledge of the Education, Teaching and Curriculum Collections and he can also help you with Endnote.

<Lutie Sheridan
lutie.sheridan@ecu.edu.au
9370-6260>

Lutie Sheridan is our humanities and communications subject librarian. Lutie also has a focus on aboriginal studies and she runs library sessions for our indigenous students at Mount Lawley. You'll often find Lutie and our other librarians answering your queries in the library at the information desks.

<Kathy Little
k.little@ecu.edu.au
6394-3746>

At our Joondalup Campus you'll find Kathy Little. Kathy is our Education subject librarian. Kathy looks after the information needs our faculty staff and students at Joondalup. Kathy can assist with library research and search tips for the databases and the Internet

You will find our Education and Arts librarians in the Mt Lawley and Joondalup campus libraries. Just ask us if you need help in doing research for your assignment. If you are a postgraduate or research student, please make an appointment for a one on one session.
