

2026 Global Indigenous Learning Experience

Students are asked to address the following questions. Please keep written responses clear and concise using only the available space. No additional attachments will be accepted.

Please outline your specific goals and aspirations for participating in the 2026 Global Indigenous Learning Experience Program. Describe how you believe this experience will contribute to your personal, academic, and professional development, highlighting any particular skills, knowledge, or perspectives you hope to gain or strengthen.

Considering that the 2026 Global Indigenous Learning Experience Program requires a 5-week commitment, including online sessions over 3 weeks, 1 week in-person (Perth component), and 1 week in-person (Vancouver component), please identify any potential factors or circumstances that might affect your ability to fully participate in the program. Additionally, how do you plan to mitigate or address these considerations to ensure your maximum engagement and contribution to the 2026 Program?

2026 Global Indigenous Learning Experience

ECU Funding will be provided to cover flights and accommodation. If you were offered a place in the 2026 Program, you would be expected to pay a contribution of $250 which will go towards non-programmed meals and other related expenses in Canada. Do you have any financial concerns that might impact your contribution?

Please provide contact information for an ECU referee who can support your participation in the 2026 Program. This could be a unit coordinator, lecturer, tutor, mentor, or other professional contact who can speak to your potential contribution to the Program. Note: Kurongkurl Katitjin staff cannot be a referee for this application.
