About the Award

The Zonta Club of Peel, along with co-sponsor the City of Mandurah, offers an award of $1600 for female students engaged in a recognised course of study at a Western Australian university. The aim of this award is to assist a woman to complete her first degree.

Eligibility

Students are eligible to apply, who:

1. Have been a resident in the Peel region for two or more years
2. Are studying their first undergraduate degree
3. Have successfully completed at least one year of their course of study on either a full time or part time basis
4. Are enrolled in the next year of their course of study
5. Do not hold any other scholarship or monetary award for their current studies.
Note: Centrelink payments are allowable
6. Are able to demonstrate need of financial assistance
7. Are an Australian citizen or have permanent residency status

Terms and Conditions

Applicants are required to:

1. Provide the names and contact details of at least two referees
2. Provide evidence of satisfactory completion of the previous year's course of study. Your application must include PDF copies of previous year's official grades or equivalent records from your university
3. Show evidence of enrolment in the next academic year. Please provide PDF copies of an official verification of your current enrolment with your application
4. Attend a personal interview in January - February (date TBA) and provide proof of identity if short-listed,
5. The successful applicant must be available to receive her award at the Zonta Club of Peel's International Women's Day event on or near 8th March
6. Be available later in the year to attend a Zonta meeting to update the Club on your academic progress.

Selection Process

1. Applications must be on the attached form. All questions must be answered
2. Applicants will be short listed and then interviewed by a panel of the Zonta Club of Peel Education Award committee members
3. All candidates will be notified as to whether or not they have been short-listed
4. Shortlisted candidates will be advised of a mutually suitable interview date
5. The winner of the Award will be advised and will be presented with their Award in March on or about International Woman's Day
