

Position Title	Executive Member - Young Alumni Network Executive Committee
Reports to	Chair, ECU Young Alumni Network
Department	Edith Cowan University Alumni Relations
Location	Perth, Western Australia
Remuneration	Voluntary
Time Commitment	4 hours per month

Executive Member - Young Alumni Network Executive Committee

Role

The role of an executive committee member is to contribute to the planning and delivery of YAN events, promote YAN to the ECU community, and be involved in setting the strategic direction of the network. Executive committee members are expected to attend the majority of committee meetings and provide support to other members of the executive committee as needed.

Skills

- Strong teamwork skills
- Organised
- Reliable
- Good communicator

What You Will Gain

- Exposure to the Alumni network and ECU's broad alumni support environment;
- Work in partnership with University bodies, successful alumni and distinguished individuals;
- Contribute to the voice of the various alumni groups within ECU, including the Young Alumni Network's new joiners from each year's 2 graduating cohorts;
- Develop professional skills and gain valuable experience to be applied throughout your career;
- Opportunity to work with like-minded young professionals and meet inspiring individuals to build and enhance your networks;
- Evolve your capacity to work within a dynamic team on the ground and within a young and growing university network collaborating across diverse areas.

Term

Min 1 yr. role (with option to renew)

Meetings and events

Committee meetings are generally held every two months, at a location to be decided by the committee. Typically, the YAN holds four events/activities per year and an Annual General Meeting.