

Position Title	Ambassador - Young Alumni Network Executive Committee
Manager	Chair, ECU Young Alumni Network
Department	Edith Cowan University Alumni Relations
Location	Perth, Western Australia
Remuneration	Voluntary
Time Commitment	Approx. 2 hours per month

Ambassador - Young Alumni Network Executive Committee

Role

The Ambassador's main responsibilities are to attend YAN events and promote YAN to the ECU community. Ambassadors welcome ECU alumni to YAN events and introduce alumni to YAN Executive Committee Members. Ambassadors are active listeners of ECU Alumni's experiences, and play an important role in creating awareness of YAN among members and the wider community. Ambassadors can refer to the ECU YAN LinkedIn page and the ECU Alumni Facebook page when communicating with anyone in the ECU community. Ambassadors are also required to attend some committee meetings throughout the year.

Skills

- Strong communication skills
- Sound interpersonal skills
- Approachable and friendly
- Organised

What You Will Gain

- Exposure to the Alumni network and ECU's broad alumni support environment;
- Work in partnership with University bodies, successful alumni and distinguished individuals;
- Contribute to the voice of the various alumni groups within ECU, including the Young Alumni Network's new joiners from each year's 2 graduating cohorts;
- Develop professional skills and gain valuable experience to be applied throughout your career;
- Opportunity to work with like-minded young professionals and meet inspiring individuals to build and enhance your networks;
- Evolve your capacity to work within a dynamic team on the ground and within a young and growing university network collaborating across diverse areas.

Term

Min 1 yr. role (with option to renew)

Meetings and events

Committee meetings are generally held every two months, at a location to be decided by the committee. Typically, the YAN holds four events/activities per year and an Annual General Meeting.