

Semester 2, 2025 Bhutan Relocation Bursary

Terms and Conditions

Eligibility guidelines

To be eligible for this bursary you must:

- be an international student (not an Australian Citizen, Australian Permanent Resident, or New Zealand Citizen) with citizenship of Bhutan;
- meet academic requirements for the applied course at ECU;
- be commencing study as an ECU full fee paying on-campus international student for the first time, at ECU Joondalup, ECU Mount Lawley or ECU South West (Bunbury) Campus locations in Semester 2, 2025; and
- not receive any other ECU bursaries or full scholarships for your studies.

Terms and conditions

- The recipient must continue to meet the eligibility guidelines and these terms and conditions at the time of applying and throughout 2025 (as applicable).
- The recipient must be enrolled to study in 60 credit points each Semester or study period in 2025 and remain enrolled in 60 credit points post census date.
- ECU are open to prospective international students including ECU Alumni, who have completed their original degree and receive an offer to enrol in Semester 2, 2025 into a new degree (for example those progressing from Bachelors to Masters courses).
- Students are responsible for meeting travel requirements set by the Australian and Western Australian Government.
- ECU may, in its absolute discretion, cancel the bursary if the recipient does not enrol in their units of study or pay their tuition fees by the relevant date(s) published by ECU.
- The recipient may become ineligible for the bursary if they receive any other ECU bursaries or full scholarships during the term of the bursary.
- The recipient must comply with ECU's statutes, rules, by-laws, policies, procedures, or other similar instruments, and with all applicable visa requirements.

- The recipient agrees to promptly notify ECU of any change of circumstances that may affect their ongoing eligibility.
- The bursary includes $2,000 one-off payment into the student's nominated Australian bank account post census date of Semester 2, 2025.
- The student will be required to reimburse ECU for any unused portion of the bursary, including where the student becomes ineligible, or the bursary is cancelled in accordance with these terms.
- The bursary cannot be used for any other student expense. The bursary will be applied on full-time loading enrolment (60 Credit Points) at the relevant census date.
- The bursary cannot be transferred to an ECU campus or partner outside Western Australia, or to another university.
- The bursary can be revoked by ECU if the recipient does not accept their Letter of Offer or enrol in their course by the date specified.
- The recipient must comply with any applicable visa requirements.
- The recipient is ineligible if they have also received any other bursaries from ECU for their studies.
- The recipient must pay their tuition fees within the stipulated payment deadlines, failure to do so may negate the bursary.

All bursaries are awarded at ECU's absolute discretion. ECU reserves the right to revoke the bursary at any stage if a student is found to have provided information that is false or misleading, does not meet the bursary eligibility criteria (including ECU's standard and specific admission requirements), or the recipient does not comply with the conditions of the bursary. In these circumstances, ECU may require any amounts paid to the recipient to be refunded to ECU.

ECU reserves the right to decline to award bursaries if, in its opinion, there are no suitable applicants. The number of bursaries to be awarded shall be at ECU's sole discretion. This bursary may be withdrawn from offering by ECU at any time without notice.
