

ECU_AIESEP Specialist Seminar 2025: Body Politics in and through Movement

CALL FOR PAPERS!

The ECU_AIESEP Specialist Seminar is being held 8-10 December 2025 at ECU's South West Campus, Bunbury, Western Australia.

The theme – Body Politics in and through Movement – invites contributions from researchers and professionals working in a range of settings and roles where bodies and movement are in focus.

Options

Presentations can be made in the following formats:

- 10-minute oral presentation with accompanying PowerPoint slides
- Digital poster with live 7-minute presentation
- Printed poster with live 7-minute presentation

Requirements and Criteria

For all presentation formats, an abstract (maximum 250 words) is required. Review of abstracts will consider: Relevance to the specialist seminar topic, Quality of communication and Innovation/Unique insights for research and/or practice. The Scientific Committee will make decisions on abstracts received at three review meetings, scheduled for July, August and September 2025. This is to enable prompt communication of outcomes to authors making submissions.

Submit Abstracts here

Further Information

For more information please visit our website here, or you can register below.

To subscribe to event mailings and for all other inquiries, please reach out to us via email: SHEdRC@ecu.edu.au.

Register Here

