

Clinical Supervision for Supervisors

Clinical supervision is a core component of safe, effective and sustainable practice.

Strengthen your skills in clinical supervision and reflective practice with this evidence-informed, blended learning program.

Designed for mental health nurses (and relevant for all health professionals), this course combines flexible online learning with interactive, face-to-face workshops to build confidence and practical supervisory capability.

What You'll Gain

- Core principles of clinical supervision
- Practical supervision models and approaches
- Skills to lead effective, reflective supervision
- Strategies to support safe, high-quality practice Grounded in evidence and incorporating Safewardsinformed GRiP-S.

Program Format

36 hours CPD

- Online (20 hrs): Self-paced modules (4 weeks prior)
- Workshops (16 hrs): Two full-day, hands-on sessions

Creative thinkers made here.

Who Should Attend

Mental health nurses with 5+ years' experience looking to enhance or refresh their supervision skills.

Course details

Cost: $800 per person.

When: Next face-to-face seminar 4th and 5th June.

Location: ECU Joondalup campus

Places are limited.

Who Should Attend

Mental health nurses with 5+ years' experience looking to enhance or refresh their supervision skills.

See more course information

Please note: delivery of the face-to-face seminar is dependent on minimum enrolment numbers. If the minimum number of participants is not reached, the university reserves the right to reschedule the seminar or modify the delivery format. Participants will be notified prior to the scheduled seminar dates.

j.hamilton@ecu.edu.au

ECU.EDU.AU