STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

Listed below are some words of thanks from prize winners who were unable to attend the prize ceremony.

City of Wanneroo New Product Development Prize

Donor: City of Wanneroo

Winner: Adam Clayton Benjamin Williams

Thank you to the City of Wanneroo and the ECU School of Business and Law for this award.

The New Product Development unit was my first unit with ECU and the deployment of the course structure, materials and learning environment was a quantum leap ahead of any previous post graduate studies.

The unique collaboration with the students from Umea University in Sweden was highly engaging and our working groups perfectly simulated a contemporary workplace environment.

This unit was led by world-class teaching practitioners in Melissa, Helen and Thomas and the learnings taken from the unit have been extensively applied in my workplace, both to my role and the workplace disciplines of the team I work in.

This unit and my post graduate study with ECU has already had a profound effect on my performance and subsequent career prospects and I am grateful to ECU for commencing my post graduate studies in such a positive and progressive manner.

Sea to Summit Award for Excellence in Sport, Recreation Leadership and Programming

Donor: Sea to Summit

Winner: Noah Alexander Weymes

Thank you to the ECU School of Business and Law for this Award.

I started my studies in 2021 in sports management in the hopes of gaining experience and knowledge around the management of sport and recreation. I can honestly say that through my degree so far, I have gained significant leadership and management skills and have had an array of opportunities to gain hands on experience in the field such as a placement at Swimming WA. I am very honoured to receive this award and am eager to see where my studies will take me in the future, Thank you.
