

Terms and Conditions

This bursary is funded through Needs Based Funding from the Department of Education to support students from low SES backgrounds, Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander students, and students studying at regional campuses.

The following ongoing conditions apply to this bursary:

- The recipient must continue to meet the eligibility guidelines and these terms and conditions at the time of the payment/receipt of the bursary.
- To receive payment, the recipient must be currently enrolled in a teaching period with a census date between September and December.
- The bursary can be revoked if the recipient does not accept their offer within the timeframe specified on the offer letter.
- The recipient is not eligible to receive the bursary if they transfer to another course without ECU's permission (which may be withheld in ECU's absolute discretion).
- Payment of the bursary cannot be deferred.
- Payment of the bursary will be made directly to an Australian bank account.
- The recipient must comply with all applicable requirements under ECU's statutes, rules, by-laws, policies, procedures or other similar instruments, and with all applicable visa requirements.
- The recipient must notify ECU of any change of circumstances that may affect their eligibility to receive the bursary.
- This Bursary may be taxable, and you are advised to seek independent tax advice, and confirm the financial impact of this bursary by making any necessary inquiries with the Australian Tax Office and/or Centrelink.
- All bursaries are awarded at ECU's discretion. ECU reserves the right to revoke the bursary at any time if a student is found to have provided information that is false misleading, does not meet the bursary eligibility criteria (including ECU's admission requirements), or does not comply with the above conditions.
- ECU reserves the right to decline to award bursaries if, in its opinion, there are no suitable applicants. The number of bursaries to be awarded is at ECU's sole discretion. This bursary may be withdrawn from offering by ECU at any time.
